Introduction

The Participation and Activity Limitation Survey (PALS) is Canada's national survey that gathers information about adults and children whose daily activities are limited by a physical, mental, or other health-related condition or problem.

This document presents data tables on the income of people with and without disabilities in Canada.

Note(s):
Income group data represents the number of persons 15 years of age or older by total population, and by the non-disabled and disabled populations.
The population excludes persons living in institutions, on Indian reserves, and in the Yukon, Northwest Territories and Nunavut.
Total respondent income is the sum (including loss) of any paid, self-employed, government payments, and other income for taxation years, 2000 (2001) and 2005 (2006).
Year 2000 income data was converted to 2005 dollars, based on annual Consumer price index (CPI) indexes.
The sum of values for each category may differ from the total due to rounding.

Note(s):
Income group data represents the number of persons 15 years of age or older by total population, and by the non-disabled and disabled populations.
The population excludes persons living in institutions, on Indian reserves, and in the Yukon, Northwest Territories and Nunavut.
Total respondent income is the sum (including loss) of any paid, self-employed, government payments, and other income for taxation years, 2000 (2001) and 2005 (2006).
Year 2000 income data was converted to 2005 dollars, based on annual Consumer price index (CPI) indexes.
The sum of values for each category may differ from the total due to rounding.

Note(s):
Income group data represents the number of persons 15 years of age or older by total population, and by the non-disabled and disabled populations.
Total respondent income is the sum (including loss) of any paid, self-employed, government payments, and other income for taxation year 2005.
The sum of values for each category may differ from the total due to rounding.

Note(s):
Income group data represents the number of persons 15 years of age or older by total population, and by the non-disabled and disabled populations. Old age security (OAS) and Guaranteed income supplement (GIS) income represents taxation years, 2000 (2001) and 2005 (2006). Year 2000 income data was converted to 2005 dollars, based on annual Consumer price index (CPI) indexes.
The sum of values for each category may differ from the total due to rounding.

Income group data represents the number of persons 15 years of age or older by total population, and by the non-disabled and disabled populations.
Child Tax benefit income represents taxation years, 2000 (2001) and 2005 (2006).
Year 2000 income data was converted to 2005 dollars, based on annual Consumer price index (CPI) indexes.
The sum of values for each category may differ from the total due to rounding.

Note(s):
Income group data represents the number of persons 15 years of age or older by total population, and by the non-disabled and disabled populations.
Retirement income includes pensions, superannuation and annuities, including those from registered retirement savings plan and registered retirement income fund.
Retirement income represents taxation years 2005 (2006).
The sum of values for each category may differ from the total due to rounding.
